Administration's Program
Now in Full Before the Senate

Washington, July 24.—The administration's trust legislation program is at last before the Senate. Chairman Newlands yesterday reported the railroad securities bill, the last of the trio of anti-trust measures.

With the new order made by the Democratic caucus the Senate shall sit daily from 11 to 6 o'clock and cut out all routine morning business plans for expediting the legislation are matured and progress is expected.

Republicans seem disposed to join hands with the Democrats in getting the legislation through. Senator Cummins yesterday succeeded in passing a resolution providing that nothing shall be considered in the Senate until the trust bills are disposed of. With seven hours a day reserved for debate on the trust bills it ought to be possible to speed up and hasten the adjournment.

JONES' NAME

President Wilson Sends Message to the United States Senate.

Washington, July 24.—President Wilson yesterday withdrew the nomination of Thomas Jones to be a member of the Federal reserve board. The president's message, ending the bitterest appointment fight of his administration, reached the Senate while Senator Reed was making a vigorous speech in opposition to the Jones confirmation on account of his connection with the so-called Harvester trust.

With the withdrawal were sent letters exchanged by the president and Jones, the latter asking that his name be withdrawn on account of the embarrassment it was causing the administration.

The president wrote that he was unwilling to allow Jones to continue as a football in the contest that had arisen, and did not want a personal matter to interfere with the program of great constructive legislation which is nearing its completion.

"Because you like a thing is your reason for going back after it again and again."

The real test of merit in the Hart Schaffner & Marx clothes we sell is the number of men who "come back." It's pretty safe to say that once you get a taste of these qualities, you'll never be satisfied with less.

Here in these clothes that are made better than "just to sell," every man and young man who likes to save money and dress more carefully will find just what he's looking for.

instructed his counsel to bring suit for libel against Theodore Roosevelt, based upon Colonel Roosevelt's statement of Wednesday night attacking Mr. Barnes and endorsing the candidacy of Harvey D. Hinman for the nomination for governor at the Republican primaries.

The amount of damages for which Mr. Barnes would sue apparently had not been determined at the time he issued his statement. It was said, however, that it would be for a substantial sum. The suit will be brought in the supreme court, Mr. Barnes announced, within a few days. "When an issue of this kind is raised by a person of such prominence," reads Mr. Barnes' statement, "one has but one of three courses: To submit to the aspersion; to enter into an unseemly personal controversy, or to appeal to the courts, in order to enable the person who utters the libel an opportunity to produce legal evidence. I deny the truthfulness of every statement made by Mr. Roosevelt in his publication this morning and have instructed my counsel to bring an action for libel without delay against him."
